

28 August 2017
By Staff Writer

Freewheeling cycling fun day promotes inclusion

Lewis, right, a resident of Dunham House, and Moise of Pleins Rayons/Freewheeling have struck up a mutual friendship in a collaborative process that is helping both to move forward in a positive way. (Photo by Ann Davidson)

On the hottest day of last week, a group of hearty cyclists from Pleins Rayons/Freewheeling and Dunham House united to participate in a cycling fun day.

See the story in the August 29 issue of Brome County News.